President's Message

I am delighted to welcome all of you to another year of learning, hospitality, and fellowship at the UCSC Women's Club. This will be our 38th year and Corinne Miller, our 2nd Vice President in charge of programs has invited some interesting and intriguing speakers to our meetings. There is the Holiday Party in December to look forward to as well as the annual luncheon in May where we will be able to meet our scholarship recipients. We raised about $2,000 for the scholarship fund at the annual auction held at last year's luncheon. Thank you to all the generous donors, bidders, and buyers.

At our Fall Gathering from 11:30 to 1:00 at University House on October 6 you will hear about the many interest groups, some of which are new, that are a part of the club. Peggy Delaney, the Campus Provost and Executive

Editor's Corner

We would like this newsletter to contain news of our members: their travels, family events, books and classes they enjoyed. Let's fill the pages with your adventures. Interest Group Coordinator Joan Harrington Trenbeth sent a resume of her spring trip (below). Now it is your turn! Where have you been? What have you done? Email to GGJ819@cs.com

An Adventure in the Arts

Joan Harrington Trenbeth

If you enjoy classical music, architecture and the arts, consider taking one of Elderhostel's International trips to Europe.

This spring I signed up for the "Heartland of Classical Music" tour of Germany and Austria. Our tour began in Berlin and almost every evening our group of about 25 attended a concert or opera. An added bonus – the magnificent architecture, glorious museums and castles galore. East Berlin, now a very modern part of the city was a highlight with its contrast between the area as it was and the sleek modern buildings of the present. We heard the Berlin Philharmonic orchestra and enjoyed the opera Carmen

We traveled to Potsdam, scene of the 1945 Potsdam conference where Truman, Stalin and Atlee carved up sections of Europe; and to Munich's famed city hall and site of the Glockenspiel Chimes where out pops traditional carved Bavarian dancers. Everyone in the square stops to admire these ancient little characters.

In Munich we attended their Chamber orchestra featuring John Cage and to the Bavarian State Opera to see Lohengrin. And in Salzburg, Austria, we sat under the dome in the Cathedral and heard a choir of 200 sing to the music of a full orchestra..In Salzburg, our musical experience was the opera "Marriage of Figaro."

Final stop was magical Vienna. In Schubert's home we attended a private concert; saw a modern production of La Traviata at the Volksoper House, toured the Schonbrunn palace--the Hapsburg's winter palace and the Vienna National Opera House. We even rode the world's oldest ferris wheel and saw the Lippanzer horses.

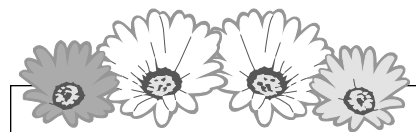

The combination of music, architecture, museums featuring Picasso, Titian, Reubens, klimp, Schiel and others, elegant shopping, delicious pastries, German/Austrian food and beer were just beyond my expectations.

Interest Groups

Sign up for one of our interest groups or start another at our first meeting of the year on October 6.

We now have three book groups, with word from Book Club #1 that they will be accepting new members this year. Interested? Contact Elizabeth Mullen at 685-9267. Our present interest groups are Book groups 1, 2, and 3; Hiking, Bridge, Mah Jong, English in Action (converse with individuals from abroad to help them with their English), and the Garden Club. New groups may be formed if there is interest such as a lunch, gourmet or movie group. Come to the October meeting to find out other new ideas.

Is there another group you would like to form? Contact Interest Group Coordinator, Joan Harrington Trenbeth at 688-6039; or email dtrenbeth@aol.com. With Joan's approval, you can get one started with a signup table at the October 6 meeting.

MEETING REFRESHMENTS

This year we will be using a new system for refreshments. There will be sign-up sheets at our meetings for each month. Come to the Fall Gathering and we'll tell you more!

Vice Chancellor, will be welcoming us and providing us with an overview of the campus at that meeting. I hope you will all be able to attend to meet old friends, make new ones, learn something more about the university, and become involved in a new interest group or renew ties to a group in which you have participated in the past.

There are also some special events coming up. This year UC Davis is hosting the all-campus gathering on April 12 which will conclude with a special tour of the Robert and Margrit Mondavi Center for the Performing Arts. Also, Heidi McGough, our past president, is investigating some special adventures or programs that we may all enjoy.

I hope to see you at our first meeting in October!

Best wishes

May Clark,

President 2004-2005
